Letters have been received from the several senators and representatives.

The paper which was sent, as follows —

The South Kingstown Monthly Meeting of Friends, convinced that disarament is the most imperative of the many needs confronting the world, urges on the to use their influence to chase the President of the United States call an international conference on disarmament in the immediate future, this conference to be held with the idea that all action leading to an increase in military or naval appropriation shall wait on the decision of the conference. Such a course is now being advocated by many men of affairs as the only way of averting a world financial collapse. The world is looking to the United States to take the initiative in such reform, and this meeting urges it as a first essential step toward a spirit of understanding between the nations on which any permanent improvement in world conditions must be based.
